

New Zealand Geotechnical Society

PRESENTER DECLARATION FORM

Please carefully consider the following statements before agreeing to make a presentation. NZGS presentations may be recorded and/or live streamed. These recordings may be distributed on the NZGS website and/or hosted on YouTube or other platforms. NZGS will usually, but does not guarantee to, make these presentations available to members only.

Presentation Title:

.....

Author(s):

.....

Author's email:

.....

Presentation date(s) and location(s):

.....

I hereby declare that:

- (a) To the best of the knowledge of all authors, the information presented in this presentation is factually correct;
- (b) To the best of the knowledge of all authors, there is no moral, ethical or legal impediment to the publication of the information presented in this presentation;
- (c) Any direct reference to an individual by name (as distinct from formal citation of his/her paper) has been disclosed to that individual;
- (d) Written permissions to publish the information contained in this presentation have been obtained from the legal owners of the information, and such owners have been appropriately acknowledged;
- (e) Any commercial interests or conflicts of interest, for any of the authors in regard to the content of this paper, will be clearly declared in the presentation;
- (f) The authors agree that the NZ Geotechnical Society has the right to publish or republish the presentation as it sees fit to do.

NAME: _____

SIGNATURE: _____

DATE: _____